LIBRARY

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

A Season of Joy!

In this year of change, the holiday season remains a time of cherished traditions and perhaps uncharted celebrations and experiences. Whether you celebrate with a small cluster of family and friends or are planning virtual events, the season reminds us to find joy, remember those who are dear and relish life's little pleasures.

As is tradition, the Library has curated gift ideas that speak to the moment. You'll want to check out the broad array of gifts for young learners, music lovers, book lovers, and unique stocking stuffers.

I hope you enjoy browsing our 2020 Holiday Catalog and discover special gifts for your loved ones and yourself. You can visit us online at loc.gov/shop and find an even broader choice of gifts.

Wishing you joy and hope this holiday season and a healthy and happy New Year!

Maya Angelou Bust

Actress, Activist, Author

She penned poetry for presidents and the disenfranchised, but it was her autobiographical work, I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings, that made her a lauded public figure.

180 COPIES

When the Gutenberg bible was first printed in 1455, 180 copies were made. Of these, only 35 were printed on vellum. Today, there are only three complete vellum copies known to exist, including the Library's copy. It is the first book to be printed with movable type in the Western hemisphere.
